Description	Campfire Song is all about student life, the relaxed world of University goes, the truly important bits, so nothing academic of course.

I took all of the classes
 The smart dude with the glasses
 Took when I chose what to take
 Didn't read the guidelines
 Got stuck on the sidelines
 And I'm struggling with the subject's name

But I'm here in the barn now
 Helping feed the cash cow
 I'm in the headcount
 Taking student discounts
 Found my own couch in the postgrad lounge
 I'm an overseas student if you want me out
 A perfect P, just off a HD
 Picking up the misprints in the policy
 Cause I'll take what I get when I'm broke
 And I'm always broke so watch me go

Heya in the courtyard start a campfire today
 Burn up all the class stuff steal the speaker's buffet
 All that we learnt and all that we know
 Has helped us start a campfire watch it glow

Cause I can highlight with so many colours
 Regurgitate the words of so many others
 I'll answer things I don't know
 Stand by my case take'em on like Rambo
 Blame it on the text, blame it on Freud
 If I'm being honest than I'll blame it on the boys
 My mind's blown out- can I swap with yours?
 I'll add in as a bonus my midsem scores, no?

Heya in the courtyard start a campfire today
 Burn up all the class stuff steal the speaker's buffet
 All that we learnt and all that we know
 Has helped us start a campfire watch it glow
 All that we learnt and all that we know
 Has helped us start a campfire watch it glow

This aint good for my health, I can't ask people for help
I have to post my problems on the web page
Well I'll post this, add it to the list, wait to be publicly dissed by my tutor
As they're slaving off for their wage, well yay

Cause I'm here in the barn now
Helping feed the cash cow
And I won't get out
You can hear me shout
I'm here to eat, here to meet
Here to find my records and hit delete
In the meanwhile I'll have some fun
Try to prove to my mum that I'm not so dumb

Heya in the courtyard start a campfire today
Burn up all the class stuff steal the speaker's buffet
All that we learnt and all that we know
Has helped us start a campfire watch it glow
All that we learnt and all that we know
Has helped us start a campfire watch it glow
