Description	From Me To You is literally from Meri Amber to you about the happiness you get during your journey to meet the person you love. That excitement that bubbles almost over the edge.

The leaves have grown like a roof above my head
 And the sun pipes through all the little gaps nature has left
 Breathing pollen pods like sherbet in the breeze
 I hear candy wrappers when I tread on fallen leaves

Cause it's a mud path to a place a bit cleaner
 But it's spotless spotted with the sun specks dear cause
 It's the quickest route
 From me to you

So step by step on a pathway grain by grain
 Crunching symphonies and painting dirt with shadow stains
 I'm watching light beams beam out dust in the air
 And I'm whispering to the rocks that I'm almost there

Cause it's a mud path to a place a bit cleaner
 But it's spotless spotted with the sun specks dear cause
 It's the quickest route
 From me to you

The daylight spice seems unbeatable and it's almost that
 But it ain't quite as nice when I'm on my way back

Cause it's a mud path to a place a bit cleaner
 But it's spotless spotted with the sun specks dear cause
 It's the quickest route
 From me to you

Cause it's a mud path to a place a bit cleaner
 But it's spotless spotted with the sun specks dear cause
 It's the quickest route
 From me to you
