Share My Time

Released	20th September 2013
Description	Share My Time is a song about being alone and wondering whether you'll ever find anybody. Thinking about how others don't have time and though it may feel hopeless.

Come sit with me decrypting poetry all day long
Plaiting plaits and tying bow cause there's nothing going on

No one comes to rescue trapped fair maidens oh so shy
When life moves so quickly there's no space to watch the sky

Cause I'm high above
In my castle in my tower
And I'm twiddling thumbs
Turning minutes into hours

And I don't know if you'll ever have the time
But if you're free
Then I would love for you to share some of mine
If you're free
Then I would love for you to share some of mine

Come tell me all your stories and I'll tell you dozens more
Tales of happy ever after, queens and folklore

But lords and dukes and princes like you must prioritise
I'll blow bubbles out my window and watch days of years go by

Cause I'm high above
In my castle in my tower
And I'm twiddling thumbs
Turning minutes into hours

And I don't know if you'll ever have the time
But if you're free
Then I would love for you to share some of mine
If you're free
Then I would love for you to share some of mine
Some of mine
Some of mine
Some of mine
